Customized Training & Development

CBS has partnered with many organizations to help them in improving and sustaining their competitive performance. Once we identified the outcomes of our client's, CBS' approach is to deliver a program that is logical, relevant and of immediate and sustainable benefit

Our Approach

CBS's approach to customised corporate programs is based on the following key principles:

Benefits to you

Professional Training Support, Coordination and Evaluation

A training project coordinator is assigned specifically to partner with you on your company's training projects - assessing needs, overseeing course development, finding and hiring instructors, scheduling classes, ordering materials, registering participants, and following through with evaluation tools to make sure your employees and managers achieve their training objectives.

High Quality Training Customized to Your Company's Needs

We work with you to ensure training is focused on your needs and is consistent with your company's business philosophy and culture.

Improved Employee Performance

Job-specific customized training can enhance performance, increase productivity, and improve morale.

Attract and Retain Skilled Employees

In the current job market employees value companies that invest in their development.

Expert Instruction by Facilitators

We draw upon experts from a variety of fields and match instructors to your company's personality and needs. We can also develop your internal experts as trainers.

Flexible Scheduling

Besides providing training externally, we can also bring training to your site according to your needs

A Partner Focused on Your Business Success

We are part of the business community and are committed to the long term development of the training industry in Singapore. We will do our utmost to ensure your needs are met because we believe in long term business partnership.
